2026 Midterm Election Turnover – Indiana

Office / Chamber	Seats Contested	Pre-Election (R–D)	Post-Election (approx. R–D)	Net Change	Key Turnover Details
U.S. House	All 9	7–2	6–3	D +1	Democrats flipped IN-05 (J.D. Ford defeated incumbent Victoria Spartz). All other incumbents retained their seats.
Indiana House of Representatives	All 100	70–30	~54–46	D +14 to +16	Republican supermajority broken for the first time in ~14 years. House Speaker Todd Huston defeated by Lauren Cole. Multiple committee chairs and suburban seats flipped.
Indiana State Senate	25 of 50	40–10	~35–15	D +5	Republicans retained majority and supermajority. Democratic gains included open seats (SD-1, SD-31) and defeats of incumbents Liz Brown (SD-15) and Ron Alting (SD-22).
Secretary of State	1	Republican	Democrat (Beau Bayh)	Flipped R → D	First Democratic statewide victory since 2012.
Comptroller (Auditor)	1	Republican	Democrat (Jessica Bailey)	Flipped R → D	Incumbent Elise Nieshalla defeated.
Treasurer	1	Republican	Republican (Daniel Elliott)	No change	Elliott retained the seat.

Notes

- No governor or U.S. Senate races were on the ballot in Indiana.
- Across state legislative races, roughly 21 seats changed party (all Republican → Democratic), with about 17 Republican incumbents losing.
- Results reflect reporting as of early–mid November 2026; a few close contests were still being finalized/certified.
- Source: Compiled from contemporaneous reporting (IndyStar, Indiana Capital Chronicle, MultiState, Ballotpedia, and others).